Consent to Attend Catholic School

The Education Act, 1995 stipulates that every person who has attained the age of six years but has not yet attained the age of twenty-two years has the right to attend a school in a school division. It also stipulates that students have a right to secure instruction appropriate to their age and level of educational achievement.

"Parents who have the primary and inalienable right and duty to educate their children must enjoy true liberty in their choice of schools."

Congregation for Catholic Education (Vatican) May 5, 2009

Catholic school divisions exist to provide a distinctive Catholic faith-based education. The faith and value dimensions of the Catholic faith are expected to permeate all aspects of instruction and school activities. Schools are expected to exhibit an atmosphere of prayer and be centres of gospel virtues.

Catholicism supports the belief that all parents are their child's primary educators. Parents not of the Catholic faith who desire a Catholic education for their children must be respectful of the teachings of the Catholic Church and agree to abide by the policies and procedures of Catholic school divisions relating to religious instruction and the permeation of faith within all aspects of the student's school experience. However, Catholic school divisions reserve the right to deny admission to a non-Catholic student who will not abide by the policies of the Board relating to religious instruction, religious activities and other such programs specific to our schools.

With this in mind, please indicate which statement(s) apply to you and/or your child(ren):

- I am Catholic

- My child is not Catholic but an important reason why I am choosing a Catholic school is to have my child/children participate in the spiritual formation and atmosphere that Catholic schools provide. I agree to comply with and support, to the best of my ability, the vision, mission, and covenant of shared values of the school division, the Religious Education program, and the religious celebrations of the Catholic school.
